

Thomas Jefferson Scholarship Program's 2016-2017 Tunisia Community College Scholarship Program (TCCSP)

Improve Your Professional Skills While Studying in the U.S.!

Application Deadline: November 30, 2015 5:00pm (Tunis time)

As a part of the Thomas Jefferson Scholarship Program, the Tunisia Community College Scholarship Program (TCCSP) is a program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs of the United States Department of State. TCCSP provides opportunities for young students from Tunisia attending ISSET (Institut Supérieur des Études Technologiques), IHET (Institut des Haute Études Touristiques), and ISSAT (Institut Supérieur des Sciences Appliquées et de Technologie) to spend one academic year improving their vocational skills at accredited U.S. community colleges offering certificate programs in eligible fields of study.

All participants will:

- Attend classes full-time for one academic year in a certificate program in their field of study;
- Participate in service learning in their host community;
- Complete a part-time professional internship during their second semester;
- Students will live in dormitories on the college campus or in off-campus housing. Single sex housing is generally available.

2016-2017 Eligible fields of study for TCCSP are:

- Information Technology
- Business Administration and Management
- Tourism & Hospitality Management
- Applied Technology

Applicants must be able to achieve a TOEFL score of 450 or likely to achieve this score after short-term pre-academic English training.

U.S. community colleges are undergraduate institutions that specialize in providing post-secondary education in applied fields, technical skills development, and job training. Participants are selected through an open, merit-based competition. This is a fully funded scholarship.
